Jeffery Neve: Four Lawsuit Horaries

Four horaries on law suits from Jeffery Neve's Vindicia astrologiæ iudiciariæ (The Vindication of Judicial Astrology).

Technical Details

Neve appears to use the Regiomontanus house system and the Julian Calendar.

He also appears to be using the same terms as Lilly (see the 4th chart where he describes ♀ at 25 ♏ as being in ☿'s terms; not ♄'s as found using Egyptian terms.)

Preface i

Contents ii

List of Figures iii

1 Chart 180 - Mr. Brewster 1

2 Chart 242 - A Gentleman 4

3 Chart 432 - Anne Browne 7

4 Chart 545 - Thomas Mayne 10

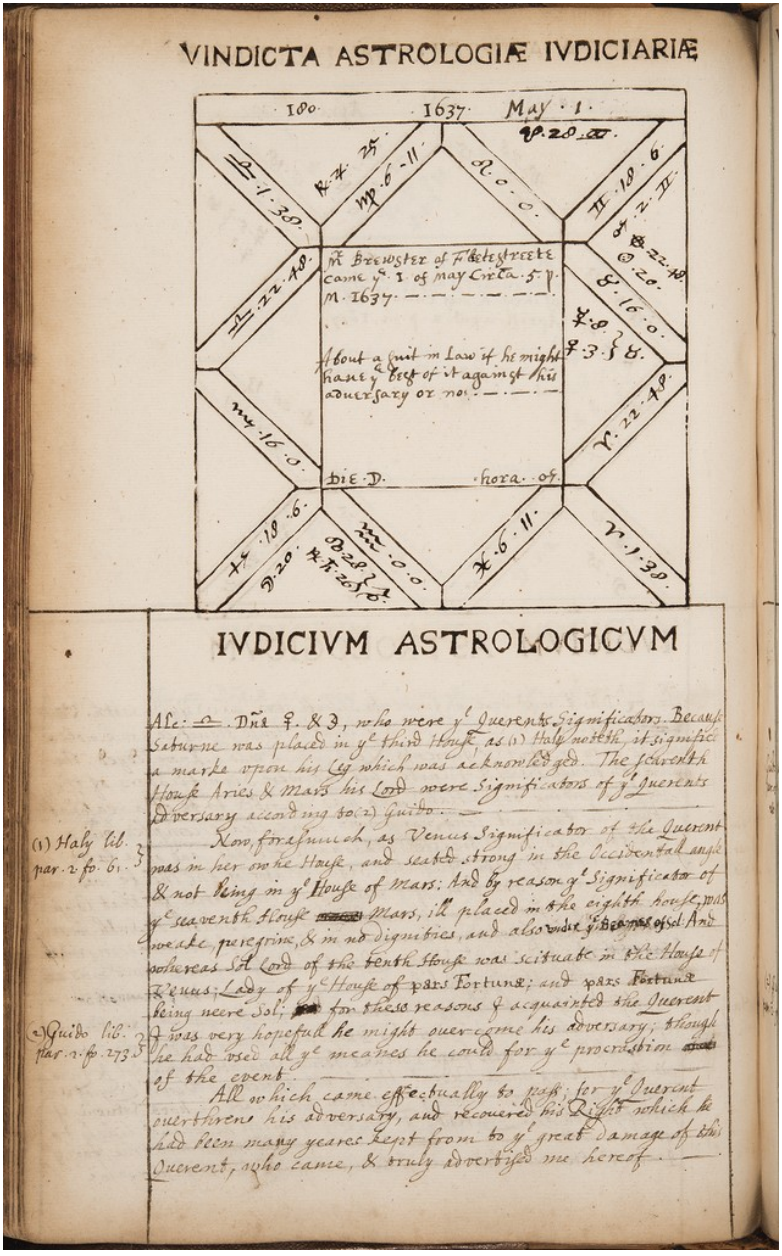
LIST OF FIGURES

1 Mr. Brewster - Original Image 1
2 Mr. Brewster - Modern Chart 2

3 A Gentleman - Original Image 4
4 A Gentleman - Modern Chart 5

5 Anne Browne - Original Image 7
6 Anne Browne - Modern Chart 8

7 Thomas Mayne - Original Image 10
8 Thomas Mayne - Modern Chart 11



VINDICTA ASTROLOGIÆ IVDICIARIÆ
180. 1637. May. 1.
M. Brewster of Fleetestreete came y^e. 1 of may Cœta. 5 ℙ. M. 1637.
About a suit in Law if he might have y^e best of it against his adversary or no.
die ☽. hora. 04.
IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM
(1) Haly lib. par. 2 fo. 61.
(2) Guido lib. par. 1 fo. 273.

Chart 1: Mr. Brewster - Original Image

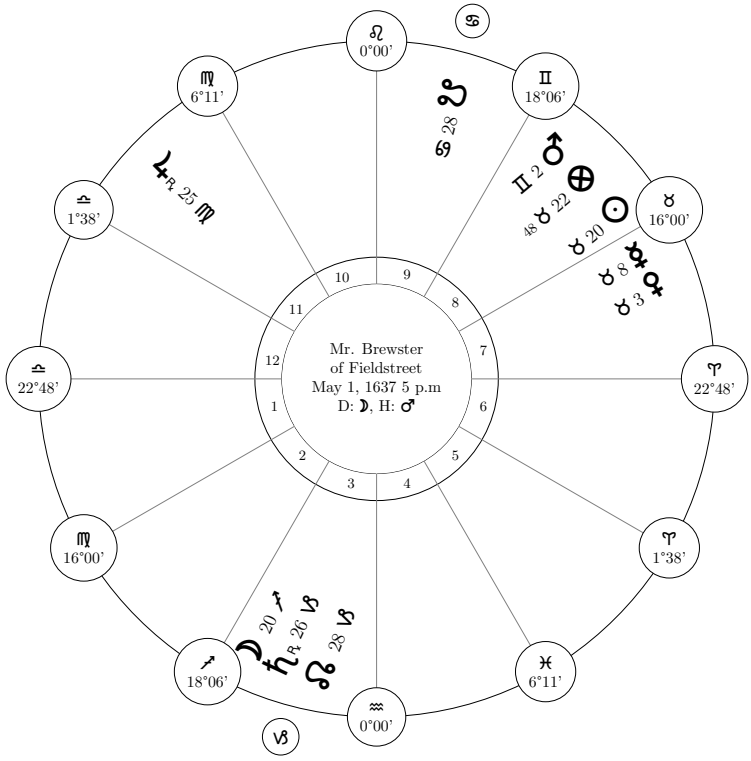


Chart 2: Mr. Brewster - Modern Chart

About a suit in Law if he might have the best of it against his adversary or no.

Ascendant ♎, and ♀ and the ☽, who were the Querent's significators. Because ♄ was placed in the 3rd House, as (1) Haly notes, it signified a mark upon his leg which was acknowledged.

(1) Haly lib. par.2 fo. 61

The 7th House ♈ and ♂ his lord were significators of the Querent's adversary according to (2) Guido.

(2) Guido lib. par.2 fo. 273

Now, for as much as ♀, significator of the Querent, was in her own house [♉] and seated strong in the Occidental angle [7th], and not being in the house of ♂; and by reason, the significator of the 7th House, ♂, ill placed in the 8th House, was weak, peregrine, & in no dignities [being in ♊], and also under the beams of the ☉ [18° from ☉], and whereas the ☉, lord of the 10th House, was situated in the house of ♀ [♉], Lady of the house of the Part of Fortune [in ♉]; and the Part of Fortune being near the ☉; for these reasons I acquainted the Querent it was very hopeful he might overcome his adversary; though he had used all the measures he could for the prosecution (?) of the event.

All which came effectively to pass; for the Querent overthrew his adversary, and recovered his Right which he had been many years kept from to the great damage of this Querent, who came, and truly advertized me hereof.

VINDICTA ASTROLOGIÆ IVDICIARIÆ
242. 1637. Septemb: 14.
M. L. a gentleman of quality whose name & omit came y^e 14. of Septemb: inter 4. et 5. P. m. 1637.
About a suit in law if he might have y^e best of it or no?
Fœ. ♂. hora ☿.
IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM
(1) Guido lib. par. 2. fo. 273. ¶
(2) Guido ibidem

Chart 3: A Gentleman - Original Image

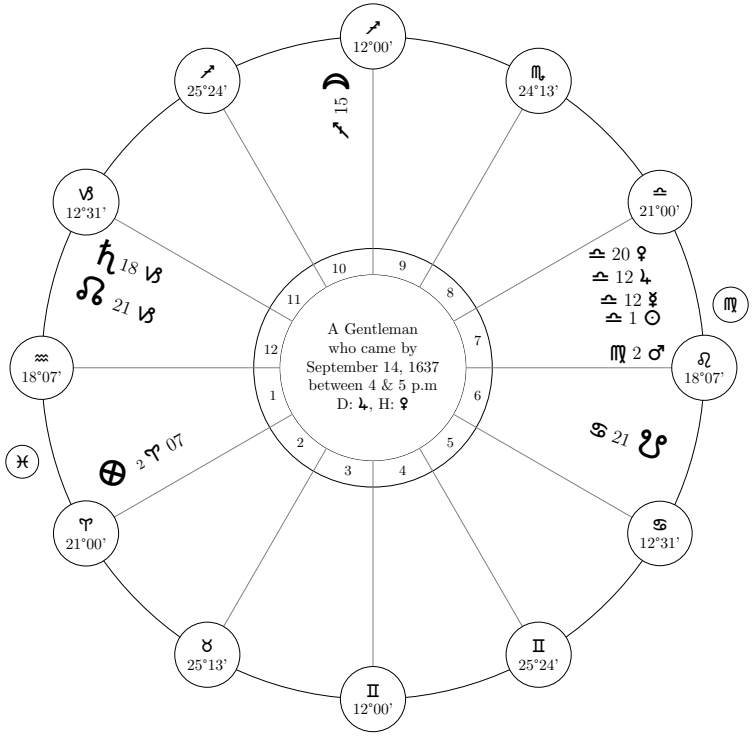

Chart 4: A Gentleman - Modern Chart

About a suit of Law, if he might have the best of it – yes or no.

(1) Guido lib. par 2, fo. 273

Ascendant ♒ and ♄ and the ☽; who were the Querent's Significators. The 7th House, ♌ and the ☉, Lord thereof, were Significators of the Querent's adversary, as Guido (1) explains.

And because ♄ was placed in the 12th House it shows the Querent to be his own enemy. And by reason, ♄ was strong in his own house [♍] near the ♍, placed in a cadent house, the Significator of the Querent, and the ☉, the Significator of his adversary, being in his fall [♎] seated in the Occidental Angle [7th], there being little difference in either of their fortitudes[1], I therefore said unto the [1]He's essentially equating the strength of a planet in domicile with one in an angle and the harm caused to a planet in its own fall with the harm caused to a planet being cadent and with the ♍.

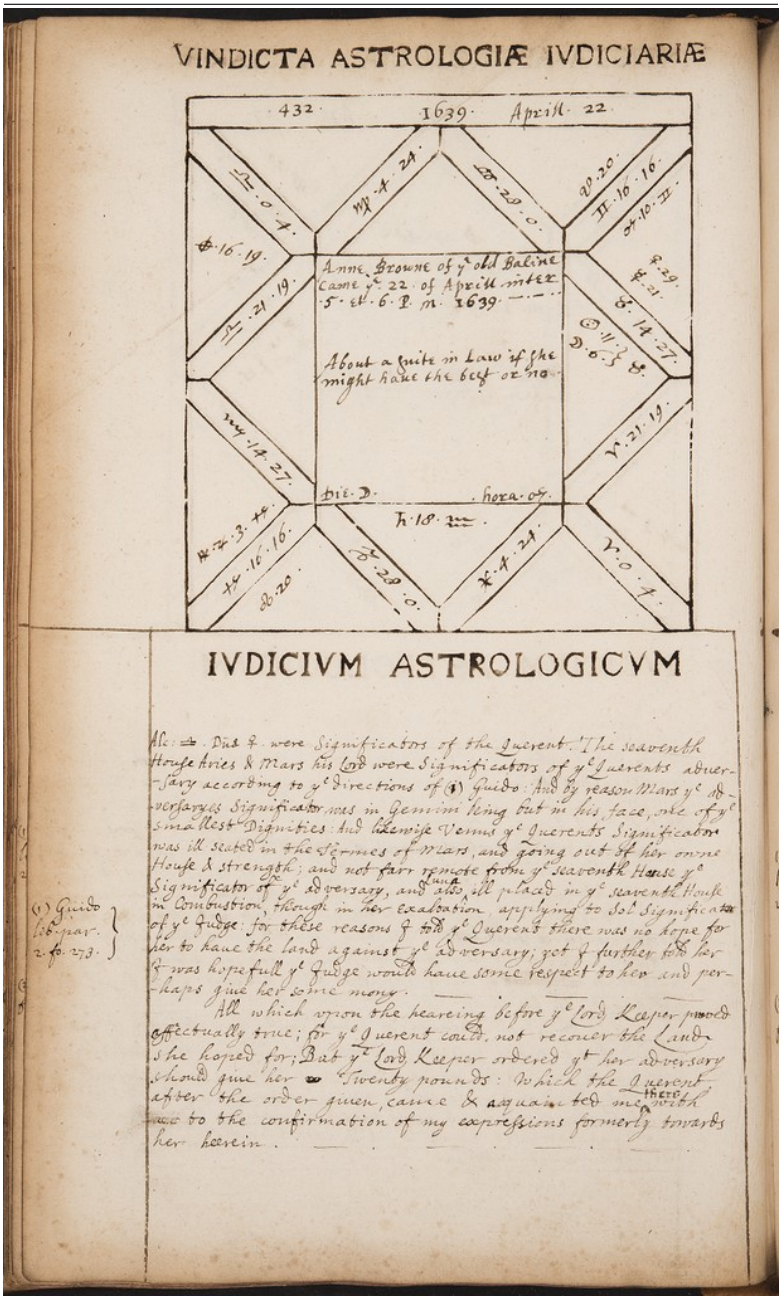
Querent, that his Suit would prove dangerous & doubtful; yet notwithstanding the Querent was likely to have the best of it. And because the Querent's Significator [♄] was the heaviest planet, and the ☉, the Significator of the Adverse party being the lighter and further signified that the Querent's adversary would be the most ready & willing to compromise (?) the Suit as (2) Guido testifies.

(2) Guido ibid.

Now for as much as the ☽ [in ♐] was in the Triplicities of the ☉, and also the ☉ [at 1 ♎] was situated in the face [decan] of the ☽, it signified some agreement, or congruity might be made between them[1]. And for that cause, I wish the Querent betake his opportunity at or before the third (?) of November then next following, when the Significators would come to a sextile aspect, at which time the adverse party might be the more willing to make a final end of the said Suit.

At (?) which according he performed; and so the Suit was fully determined between them; as after the Querent came and advertized me thereof.

[1] A weak mutual reception going on: triplicity and face?



VINDICTA ASTROLOGIÆ IVDICIARIÆ
432
1639 Aprill 22
Anne Browne of y^e old Baline
Came y^e 22 of Aprill inter
5 et 6 P. m. 1639
About a suite in Law if she might haue the best or no
die ☽
hora 05
IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM
(1) Guido lib. par. 2. fo. 273.

Chart 5: Anne Browne - Original Image

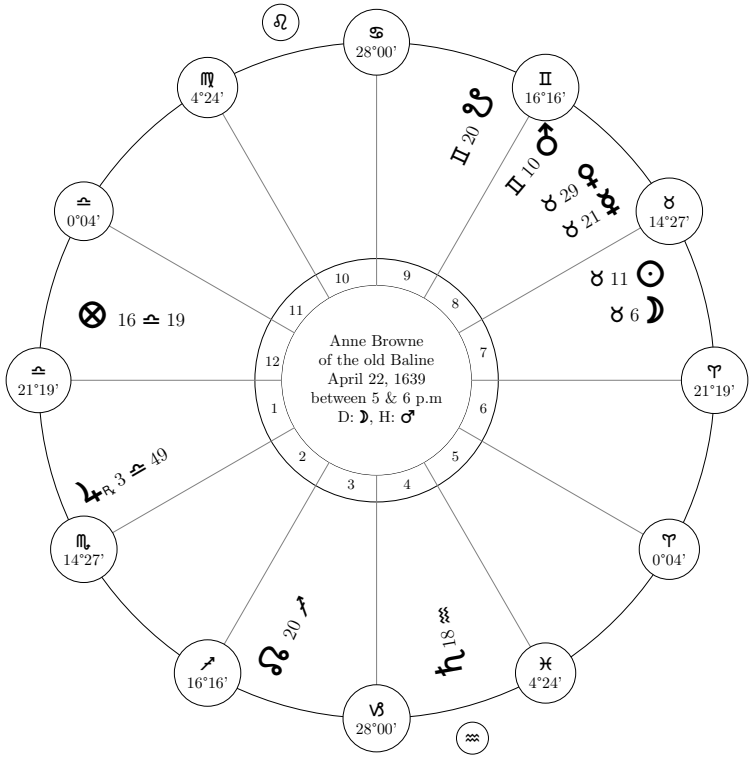

Chart 6: Anne Browne - Modern Chart

About a suit in Law if she might have the best or no.

(1) Guido lib. par.2 fo. 273

Ascendant ♎, ☽ (?) and ♀ were Significators of the Querent. The 7th House ♈ & ♂ his Lord were Significators of the Querent's Adversary according to the directions of (1) Guido.

And by reason ♂, the Adversary's Significator was in [10] ♊ being but in his face [decan], one of the smallest dignities; and likewise ♀ [29 ♉], the Querent's Significator was ill seated in the terms of ♂, and going out of her own house [♉] & strength; and not far remote from the 7th House Significator of the Adversary [♂], and the ☽ [6 ♉] also ill placed in the 7th House in Combustion though in her exaltation applying to the ☉ [11 ♉], Significator of the Judge; for these reasons I told the Querent there was no hope for her to have the land against the adversary; yet I futher told her I was more hopeful the Judge would have some respect to her and perhaps give her some money[1].

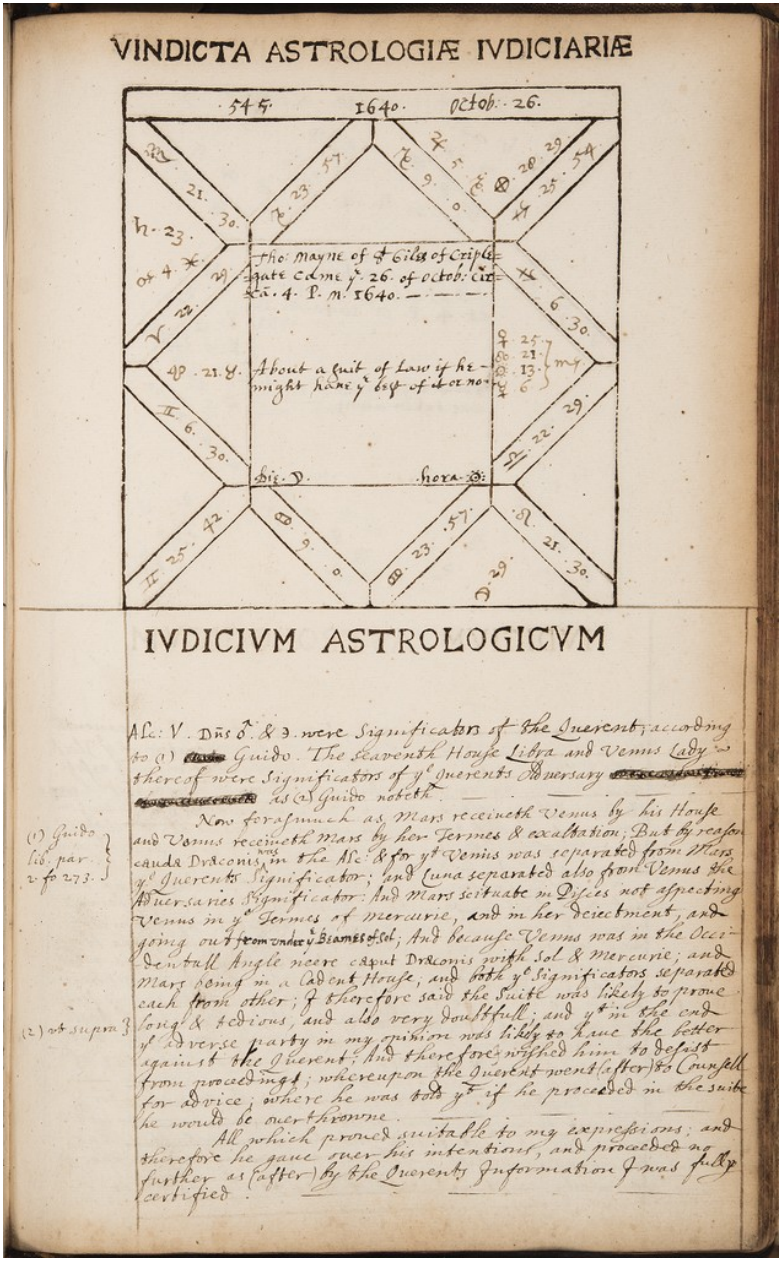
All which upon the hearing before the Lord Keeper proved effectually true; for the Querent could not recover the Lands she hoped for; but the Lord Keeper ordered that her Adversary should give her Twenty pounds. Which the Querent, after the order given, came and acquainted me therewith answer (?) to the confirmation of my expressions formerly towards her herein.

[1]Why? Because ♀ (querent's significator) is in the 8th (adversary's money) applying to ♂, the adversary's significator but also ruler of the 2nd, querent's money?



VINDICTA ASTROLOGIÆ IVDICIARIÆ
545. 1640. Octob. 26.
The Mayne of Giles of Cripplegate came y^e 26. of octob: circa 4. P. M. 1640.
About a suit of Law if he might have y^e best of it or no
Dir. ☽
Hora ☉
IVDICIVM ASTROLOGICVM
Asc: V. Dns ♂ & ☽ were Significators of the Querent; according to (1) Guido. The Seaventh House Libra and Venus Lady thereof were Significators of y^e Querents Adversary as (2) Guido noteth.
Now forasmuch as Mars receiveth Venus by his House and Venus receiveth Mars by her Termes & exaltation; But by reason caudæ Draconis in the Asc & for y^t Venus was separated from Mars, y^e Querents Significator; and Luna separated also from Venus the Adversaries Significator: And Mars scituate in Dyces not aspecting Venus in y^e Termes of Mercurie, and in her detriment, and going out from under the Beames of Sol; And because Venus was in the Occidentall Angle neere caput Draconis with Sol & Mercurie; and Mars being in a Cadent House; and both y^e Significators separated each from other; & therefore said the Suite was likely to prove long & tedious, and also very doubtfull; and y^t in the end y^e adverse party in my opinion was likly to have the better against the Querent; And therefore wished him to desist from proceedings; whereupon the Querent went (after) to Counsell for advice; where he was told y^t if he proceeded in the suite he would be overthrowne.
All which proved suitable to my expressions; and therefore he gave over his intention, and proceeded no further as (after) by the Querents Information I was fully certified.
(1) Guido lib. par. 2 fo 273.
(2) vt supra

Chart 7: Thomas Mayne - Original Image

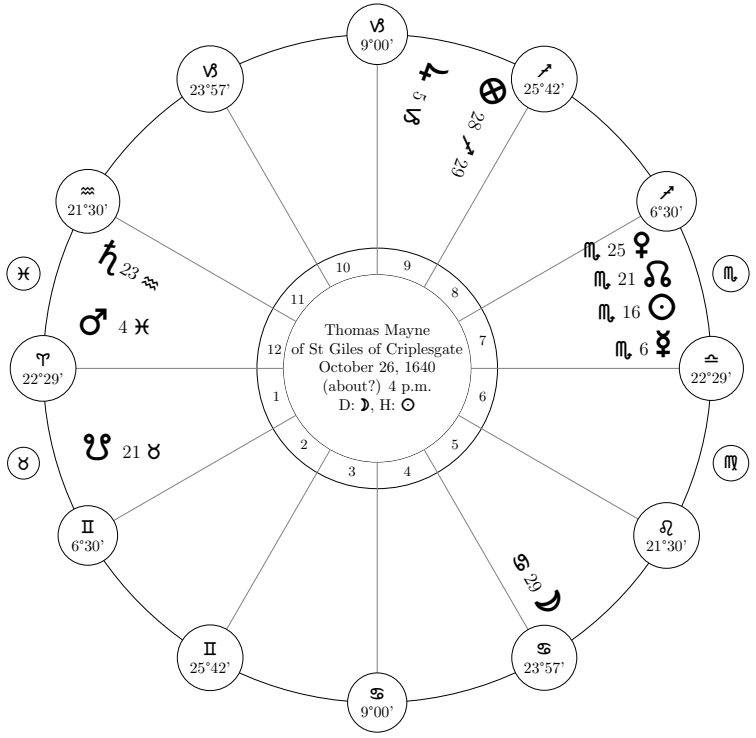


Chart 8: Thomas Mayne - Modern Chart

About a suit of Law if he might have the best of it or not.

(1) Guido lib. par. 2 fo. 273

Ascendant ♈, ♂ & the ☽ were Significators of the Querent; according to (1) Guido. The 7th House ♎ and ♀ Lady thereof were Significators of the querent's Adversary as (2) Guido notes.

(2) not(?) supra

Now, for as much as ♂ receives ♀ by his House and ♀ receives ♂ by her Terms & Exaltation; But by reason the ♉ was in the Ascendant and for that ♀ was separated from ♂, the Querent's Significator; and the ☽ separated also from ♀ the Adversary's Significator; and ♂ situated in ♓ not aspecting ♀ in the terms of ☿ and in her dejectment (?)[1], and going out from under the beams of the ☉; And because ♀ was in the Occidental Angle near the ☋

[1] ♀ is in ♏, her detriment and at 25 ♏ in ☿'s term agreeing with the dignities used by Lilly.

with the ☉ & ☿; and ♂ being in a Cadent House; and both the Significators separated each from [the] other; I therefore said the Suit was likely to prove long & acdious(?), and also very doubtful; and that in the end the adverse party in my opinion would likely to have the better against the Querent; And therefore wished him to default from proceedings; whereupon the Querent went (after) to Counsel for advice; where he was told that if he proceeded in the suit he would be overthrown.

All of which proved suitable to my expectations; and therefore he gave over his intentions, and proceeded no further as (after) by the Querent's information I was fully certified.